SOME OF MISSISSIPPI'S GREAT MEN

By J. A. Lewis—Ex-Legislator and Confederate Veteran
Having lived in this state nearly all my life—having read the history of the state—having attended a great many of the important meetings in the state, including every branch of our county from the J. P. to the Supreme Court and also the Federal Court—having attended county and state meetings of farmer's organizations, the Grand Lodge of Masons, Annual Conferences, Soldier's Reunions and State Legislature, I have observed that we have had and NOW have some great men.

What makes men great? They must have some native ability and they must devote their time and talent to one line of thought. No man can be great on all lines. The greater a man's proficiency in one line of business the greater his defects in all others. In looking back over the history of the state we find S S Prentiss the greatest orator, a man who had his weakness and died such a tragic death, Jeff Davis and Edward Cary Walthall were our greatest military men. L Q C Lamar was one of our greatest statesmen and J Z George our greatest Constitutional Lawyer. J L Power was the greatest Mason and John M Stone our greatest Governor. Bishop Galloway was regarded as the greatest preacher. But if we give credit to the preacher who was the greatest instrument in God's hand in saving the most souls, that honor would likely go to Lorinzy Dow. R W Jones stands out as one of our greatest educators. As a bookkeeper or reading clerk, Kinloch Falconer, was the best I ever saw. But O the little men I have met! Little men in big places. It reminds me of a "tom tit" trying to be a turkey gobbler. BRASS IS OFTEN TAKEN FOR BRAINS. You can't stop a two inch bung-hole with a half inch stopper. It is a fact that many of our purest and greatest men are in private life and their intellectuality and patriotism makes the elbow grease that smoothes the way of happiness and prosperity down thru the eternal years.

(We thank Mr. Lewis for the above article and hope as he hopes that it may do good among our young folks in giving them inspiration to aspire higher in every walk of life, whether we go out and DO great things before the public or whether we peacefully LIVE by the side of the road and be a friend to man.)

Amendment to Chickasaw County Bank Charter

Whereas, at a meeting of the stockholders of the Chickasaw County Bank held in its building in Houston, Mississippi, on the 24th day of February, 1916, in pursuance of previous notice to all stockholders, for the purpose of considering ways and means of reducing the capital stock of said Bank from $60,000.00 as provided in the Amendment approved April 6, 1908, to the original Charter granted to the Chickasaw Saving Bank approved March 20, 1907, and from the paid-up capital stock of $41,000.00 as same now exists, to $15,000.00, and so that the denomination of the shares of stock may be $50.00; and

Whereas, at the said meeting of the stockholders and also at a meeting of the directors on February 28, 1916, J. P. Tabb, E. P. Wilson, R. B. Waldrop and A. M. Harley, stockholders in said Bank, were appointed as commissioners to represent them and the said Bank in obtaining such amendment as may be necessary to make said changes so that the present stockholders may surrender the stock of said Bank now existing and receive in lieu thereof, such part of the $15,000.00 capital stock as the amount of the old stock held by each stockholder bears to the full amount of the old stock as nearly as possible, and to change the denomination of the shares of the new stock to $50.00 per share par value.

Now, therefore, the said Charter of the said Chickasaw County Bank is hereby further amended so that the capital stock thereof be and become hereby reduced to $15,000.00 instead of $60,000.00, and so that the shares thereof be $50.00 each par value.

This amendment is subject to approval under the provisions of Section 899, Chapter 24, Code 1906, and Chapter 124, Laws of Mississippi 1914.

This the 1st day of March, A. D., 1916.

A. M. Harley, President
L. T. Fox, Cashier.

J. P. Tabb, E. P. Wilson,
R. B. Waldrop, A. M. Harley,
